

BRAD BRADLEY BIO

Originally from San Diego, Brad's Broadway credits include Silly Elliot, the original casts of Spamalot (Dr. Mike Nichols) Amie Got Your Gun (w/ Bernadette Peters & Reba McEntire) Thou Shalt Not (Susan Stroman) People in the Picture, (Andy Blankenbushler) Steel Pier (Susan Stroman) and A Christmas Carol (Mike Ockrent) Brad starred as Patsy opposite Gary Beach's & Richard Chamberlain's King Arthur on the 1st National Tour of Spamalot. NYC and Off-Broadway-I am Harvey Milk, Chita: A Legendary Celebration, Ernest in Love. Currently Brad is starring as Mr. Wormwood in the regional premiere of "Matilda" and as Aaron in the Stephen Schwartz supervised production of "prince of Egypt", both at Tuachan Center for the performing arts. He created the role of James in "Jimmy and Carolyn" at Queens Theatre, starred as Igor in Young Frankenstein, Benny Southstreet in Guns and Dolls and Bert in Mary Poppins. On TV he appeared on the USA's "Donny!" he directed & choreographed a number for the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade & ran through the streets of NYC naked having a breakdown on NBC's "Blindspot." At age 12, Brad was a back up dancer for Michael Jackson in the Pepsi commercial. His podcast Broadways Backbone is available on Soundcloud and iTunes. www.bradbradleyofficial.com
IG-Brad2ley