

SARAH MORGAN

Sarah Morgan is delighted to be working with the SDMT Academy! Sarah is a dancer, actor, singer and choreographer. She is originally from Michigan and is currently based out of Southern California. Growing up she spent her summers studying at American Ballet Theatre NY, Boston Ballet and the Joffrey Ballet. She completed her high school education training year-round at the Miami City Ballet School. Sarah went on to dance professionally with the Los Angeles Ballet and California Ballet before eventually switching over to Musical Theatre. In the course of her career she has performed works by George Balanchine, Jerome Robbins, Septime Webre, Edward Villella, Stephen Mills, Toni Basil and Michael Bennett. Favorite recent theatre credits include A Chorus Line (Welk Theatre) and West Side Story (Moonlight Amphitheatre & Performance Riverside.) Sarah is also a certified Pilates and dance instructor and hopes to cultivate creativity, character and kindness while she shares her love for dance and the Arts with the next generation of performers.
