

RON CHRISTOPHER JONES

Ron Christopher Jones is the 2018 winner of Best Actor, and Best Fight Choreographer, as well as the 2018 winner of Best Supporting Actor, at the televised San Diego Film Awards. He has been a professional actor for over 25 years both on stage, and in Film. Credits include 4 years in How the Grinch Stole Christmas at the Old Globe Theatre, Play On at the Pasadena Playhouse, which was recorded by KPBS as part of their Great Performance series, and most recently 33 1/3 House of Dreams at the San Diego Rep. to name a few. Ron was in the CBS movie of the week, Surrender Dorothy, starring Diane Keaton, and is a featured actor in the award-winning thriller, Blood Will Have Blood, now streaming on Netflix. Ron is a graduate of the famed USIU with a BFA in Acting, and is a member of both The Screen Actors Guild, and Actors Equity Association. In 2017 Ron produced and directed the multi film festival selected I-H-I-L-I-U, a short film written by then 15 year old Tobin Carter. Other awards: Lead actor in The List, the 2016 winner of the Los Angeles 48 Hour Film Project. Featured actor in The Heiress Lethal, 2013 winner of the San Diego 48 Hour Film Project.