

Sing Your Song, Inc. ("SYS") How to Apply for a Financial Scholarship Application – For SDMT Academy Participants

(NOTE: All information will be kept confidential between Sing Your Song, Inc., the applicant and his/her/their parents)

Sing Your Song, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose mission statement is to provide financial assistance to young Performing Arts Students, who demonstrate a need. Sing Your Song was created so that young people could participate in youth musical theatre classes, camps, and shows and be able to have a positive experience in the Performing Arts.

SYS is financially supported by the generous donations from community members, businesses and corporations, and provides scholarship funding for at-risk, disadvantaged or special needs youth to attend Youth Musical Theatre classes, workshops or productions. Full, half and partial scholarships are awarded based on financial need and space availability in the class. We are excited to announce this special opportunity! Students between the ages of 5 and 20 are invited to apply for a financial scholarship with Sing Your Song, Inc.

Applicants must turn in the following to be considered for this scholarship:

1. Completed application
2. Student statement of interest
3. Parent/guardian explanation of current financial situation

The student statement of interest should be as follows:

- A paragraph (or two) that tells us how you heard about SDMT Academy and why you want to attend one of their classes, workshops or productions.
- It should include reasons for applying for the scholarship.
- Please list other activities or youth organizations that you have participated in, and provide examples that demonstrate your commitment to activities over time.
- Remember that we want to hear your own unique ideas and words, please make sure the statement that you submit is your own work.

Please scan (or take a picture) of the documents and email the completed application to my attention at:
julia@singyoursong.org.

We hope that you will take advantage of this great opportunity! Please feel free to contact me if you have questions about the scholarship, or the application process.

Sincerely,

Julia Querin, President
