

Announces Date Night Show Streaming March 11 - 14, 2021

San Diego Musical Theatre is pleased to announce Date Night - scheduled to stream March 11 - 14, 2021, featuring Emmy Award Winner special guest, Carolyn Hennessey!

Date Night opens with Carolyn Hennessey's grand entrance into Manhattan's, a neighborhood wine bar tended to by a San Diego Musical Theatre favorite, Robert J. Townsend. Bringing a healthy dose of hilarious self-deprecating humor and obvious skepticism at the prospect of her blind date actually showing up, Hennessey encounters a revolving door of Date Night's four musical theatre power couples throughout the evening. Audiences will enjoy how each appearance brings amusing true tales of how they met and became a couple peppered with incredible vocal performances of their favorite songs.

"It is almost surreal to reflect how this time last year we were about to celebrate the closing of our wildly successful production of "She Loves Me," said Jill Townsend, SDMT Artistic Director. "Date Night is a wonderful departure from the heavily steeped romantic musical productions and a
