

MELISSA GLASGOW

Melissa is so excited to teach for the SDMT Academy! She is currently pursuing her MFA in Musical Theatre at San Diego State University and has spent much of her career as a musical theatre actor, traveling everywhere from Main Street USA in Disneyland to Riyadh in Saudi Arabia. Favorite credits include: Mrs. Darling in Peter Pan (McCoy Rigby Entertainment), Aquata in The Little Mermaid national tour, and Rita Racine in Steel Pier (San Diego State University). Melissa also has a passion for education and has worked with children ages 4-18 at the Youth Academy of Dramatic Arts, the Clubhouse Academy, and La Jolla Playhouse. Her aim as a teaching artist is to shape self-assured students who develop confidence, curiosity, and empathy through theatre training.
